

Submitted photo

Framing Frezzy

To celebrate Homeownership Month, Delaware's Habitat for Humanity affiliates and partners marked the 9th annual Framing Frezzy build June 7 on Legislative Mall in Dover. AmeriCorps volunteers built the frame of a house that will be moved to Fredericka and become the new home to Juliette Main and her children. The Sussex County, Central Delaware and New Castle County chapters of Habitat for Humanity were joined in a celebration by Governor John Carrey, members of the General Assembly, Delaware State Housing Authority Director Anas Ben Addi, Delaware AmeriCorps volunteers, the Delaware Association of REALTORS, the Home Builders Association of Delaware, and Delaware Health and Social Services. Standing in front the future Main home are Bayard Williams, president - Delaware Association of REALTORS; Charles Harris, AmeriCorps program director - Governor's Commission on Community and Volunteer Services; Kevin Smith, executive director - Habitat for Humanity of New Castle County; Dan Simpson, executive director - Central Delaware Habitat for Humanity; Juliette Main, Central Delaware Habitat for Humanity homeowner; Gov. John Carrey; Kevin Gilmore, executive director - Sussex County Habitat for Humanity; Maria Bynum, Field Office Director - U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development; Anas Ben Addi, director - Delaware State Housing Authority; and James McCulley, President - Home Builders Association of Delaware.

of Baltimore northham Milford, Mag- ent weather, call the City of Dover Delaware